Dedication

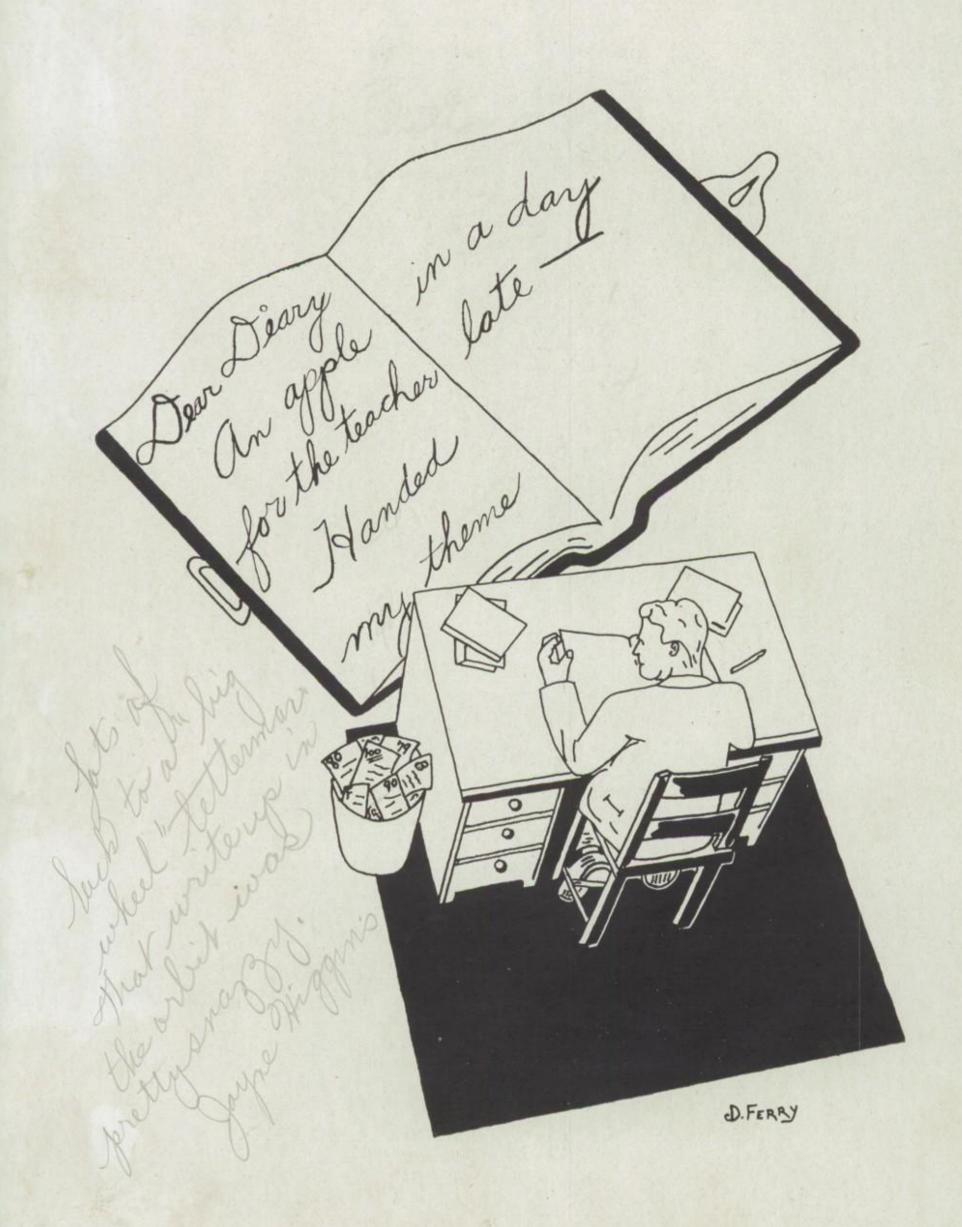

Who shovels the sidewalks? Who returns lost articles?

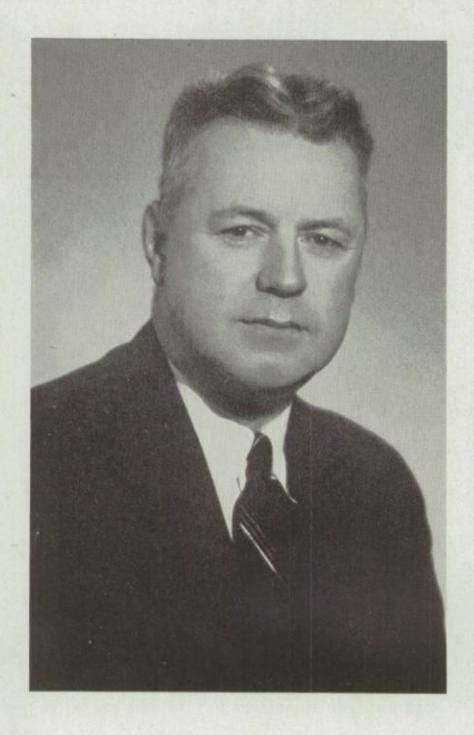

Who opens locked doors?
Who picks up all the paper we throw on the floor?

Who always has that friendly smile?

Who is always ready to do those extra little things so willingly?

WE DEDICATE THIS 1948 ORBIT TO THE JANITORS OF WATERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL.

Class of 1948

LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE WE SEE-

Barbara Klecker working in the scientific field cooking up a new potion of H_2O_2 (Peroxide, that is).

Scott Bentzin squeezing oranges at his father's store and supplying the great metropolis of Watertown with vitamins.

Helen Imming head feed buyer for a huge dairy plant. That-a-girl, Helen, you may be famous someday!

Jim Craine a bat boy for some great little team (Our Gang's Diamond Kids). He says he isn't talented for the sport, but we know he is!

Art Trebian, America's No. 1 hot trumpet player—yes, even Harry James and Tommy Dorsey will be looking up to "hot fingers".

Mary Hamm starting a rest home for bachelors—young and attractive bachelors can apply-"Mary's Happy Haven" is for us.

Gert Euper racking her brains to make out standarized tests for high school students. Seems Gert took quite a few in high school!! Wonder Why!!

Art Weber teaching geometry in an all girl's school. Art proves very efficient in his work, and the girls all like him.

Paul Nistler freezing the Rock River during the summer in order that he may start his own ice company—it's a tough job, Paul, so good luck!

Lois Gnewuch writing comic strips and her favorite creation is Snuffy Snoodlegrass the III.

Herb Goetsch head dance instructor at Mulligan's Dance Studio. Hot steps and flings, H. Goetsch's way.

Nancy Metzger telling fairy tales to the little ones of the nation over station TALE. Don is her favorite audience!!

Jackie Nolden putting fear into the heavy-weights of the world. Boy, is he good! But then, he eats Crinkle-Toasty Woasties.

Paul Borchardt manager of the Lonely Hearts Bureau-for girls!! Uncle

Paul will take care of all your troubles.

Cynthia Eisfeldt watering geraniums in some greenhouse. Wonder whose it could be?

Pat Murphy head R. P. T. and official hand holder at the "if you feel sick now, you'll feel worse later" hospital.

As We Depart

Jean Richter wills John Strahota to Donna Richter. Handle with care for she might want him back in a year.

Bob Weaver wills his way with women to Jack Bentheimer.

Bill Koenig wills to Jim Brink his way with all the female teachers.

Bill Bongard and Ralph Strahota will their ability to drive cabs to Don Koch and Jack Fendt.

Miss Kreiziger wills her 2:50 study hall to anybody who will take it off her hands.

Scott Bentzin wills his yawn to Richard Otto.

Gertrude Zoelle wills her love of dogs to Jeannine Krebs.

Jim Craine wills his crew cut to Arnold Strege. So-o-o-o becoming! Howie Conner wills his way with all the out-of-town women to Stanley Plowman.

The Senior Class of 1948 wills its fine spirit, excellent behavior and sweet disposition to the class of 1949.

Seventy-fifth Anniversary

While all of Wisconsin is celebrating its centennial, the Class of 1948 has something of its own to celebrate. It will be the 75th class to graduate from Watertown High School.

The present Webster school was the site of our first high school. It was from here that the Class of 1873 graduated. Later it was moved to the armory until our building was built in 1916.

When the 148 students gather together in the gym for graduation exercises in June, it will be hard to visualize the graduation of 1873. Only fourteen students came forth for their diplomas. And boys, if you think there are too many girls in school now, the Class of 1873 consisted of thirteen girls and one boy. Their names are listed below according to their standing.

Emma Griffith
Rosa Bernhard
Minna Voss
Emma Charboneau
Anna Shillcox
Jennie Ross
Iosie Ruebhausen

Addie Randall Anna Ross Ida Wilder Josie Kern Albert Bellack Kate Owens Celia Boughton

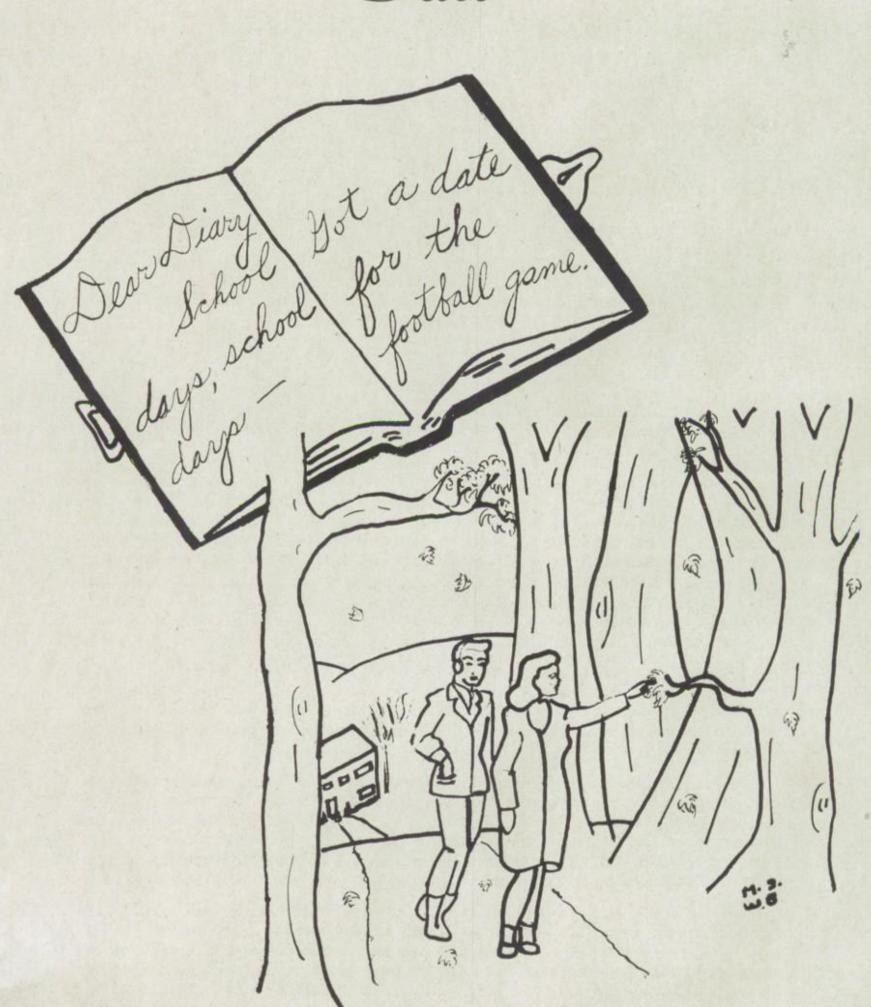

Some things were, of course, very different from now. For instance, the first graduating class was given preference as substitute teachers. They were to receive the same pay as the regular teachers. In a very short time after their graduation the Misses Rosa Bernhard, Emma Griffith, Minna Voss, Emma Charboneau, Anna Ross, Ida Wilder, and Anna Shillcox were hired as full time teachers. Just think, girls, you could graduate in June and, without those four years of College you're eagerly looking forward to, come back next September on an equal basis with those teachers who have been giving you such a hard time.

Startling results were obtained from a survey taken of the number of seniors' parents and grandparents graduating during the last seventy-five years. Only sixteen students had one of their parents graduate from Watertown High School; three had two parents graduate and two students had a grandmother graduate.

Organizations have been part of the school for many years. Our present orchestra and chorus are offsprings of organizations begun about 1910. Sports began slowly because of poor playing facilities, but they have since made up for the late start. In fact, our basketball team has won the state tournaments in 1928 and 1939. In addition, both basketball and football teams have won many other awards for such tournaments as regional and sectional.

Let's go back into the years and imagine what things were like in our grandmother's time. Was she taken riding in big shining six cyclinder models? Did she wear a skirt and sweater and was her escort dressed in sport clothes? Did she behave in the same exemplary way when in school? And compare our super highways with the plank road of grandfather's time. You may find a different picture of things now from what we picture as happening years ago, but way down deep you'll find you and your grandmother or grandfather are not so very different. Things change on the outside, but human nature is pretty much the same.

Football Season

The Watertown gridders started the season very well with a 12-0 victory over a rather weak Ripon team. Our spirits soared and it looked as if we finally would have a rather good football season. It was in this game that the famous "Wallman attempt for the extra point", took place. As you all know the ball didn't cooperate and it simply "bobbled" into the line.

Our hopes received a rude shock as we absorbed a 24 to 0 licking at the hands of the Janesville Bluejays. They had too much of everything and although Watertown fought back valiantly they finally had to accept defeat.

The Beaver Dam game was a bitter pill to swallow. The score was tied at the half, but during the second half Watertown's offensive couldn't get up enough punch to score. Final score 14 to 7.

Although leading at the half 14 to 7, we lost to Portage 27 to 14, due to another poor second half.

After playing another excellent first half game at Marinette we lost 34 to 21. The score at the half was 7 to 7.

After winning for three quarters of the Eau Claire game, we lost 14 to 7. It looked as if we were going to win this one, but again we failed in the last half. During the first half we pushed them all over the field counting one touchdown and just missing 3 others, but once more we pulled a complete reversal after the rest.

Our chief claim to fame in the La Crosse Logan game, which we lost 26-6, is the fact that we were one of the two teams to score against the powerful Logan team this season.

The Oconomowoc game was another contest that we lost in the second period. Cooney's off-tackle plays and end runs were just too much and we lost the final game of the season 20 to 14.

Campus Band

The Campus Band is an organization composed of students from the high school band and orchestra. The big job of the band is to provide music for the high school social hours, affording the members valuable experience. Every band must practice, and this little band holds practice on Thursday evenings from 7:00 P. M. to 9:00 P. M. During this practice the musicians get a few pointers from the high school music director, Mr. Stratman.

The band sometimes cuts a few discs, and in years to come, some of the musicians will be able to sit back and listen to a record made by the Campus Band and relive old memories.

This picture shows only the originators of the band because new members have been added since the beginning of the year.

Senior High Student Council

One of the important events which the Student Council looks forward to, is the Tri-City Council meeting. The aim of the Tri-City Council is to promote a better school government through an efficient governing student body. It is composed of student representatives from Beaver Dam, Jefferson, and Watertown. Three meetings are held each year, with each school acting as host. These meetings are forms of group discussions in which problems facing the various schools, such as conduct at the games, activity fees, and dance schedules are analyzed. The officers this year were: Allen Williams, President (Beaver Dam); Charles Searns, Vice-President (Jefferson); and Jeanne Faber, Secretary (Watertown).

The officers who have carried on our own student council are:

President	Jim	Hoffman
Vice-President	Bill	Wallman
Secretary	Mary	Goecke
Advisor	Mr. F	Iinterberg

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB F. F. A.

Photography Club

The Photography Club provides an opportunity for students to develop film, print and enlarge pictures, and generally improve their technique in all phases of photographic art. The club sponsors various contests for its members, and winning pictures are exhibited in the school halls. Because of limited facilities, the membership of the club is restricted to those students who produce acceptable pictures.

F. F. A.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization for boys studying vocational agriculture. The F. F. A. is an intra-curricular activity having its origin and root in a definite part of the school curriculum, vocational agriculture. Members learn, through active participation, how to conduct and take part in public meetings; to speak in public; to buy and sell co-operatively; to solve their own problems; to finance themselves; and to assume civic responsibility. The foundation on which the F. F. A. is built includes leadership, character development, sportsmanship, co-operation, service, thrift, scholarship, improved agriculture, organized recreation, citizenship, and patriotism.

There are four grades or degrees of active membership: Green Hands, Future Farmer, State Farmer, and American Farmer.

The number of Green Hands initiated at Johnson Creek for our club was eleven. The Future Farmers number twenty-three with State Farmer, Norbert Schactner. Kenneth Finder has sent in his application for State Farmer.

The officers attended the Junior Leadership Training School at Fort Atkinson where the state-wide safety program was discussed.

In a contest requiring speech work, Kenneth Finder won high honors and competed against surrounding schools in the district contest.

Basketball Season

Watertown started the season off very well by easily defeating Hartford 38 to 31 and Horicon 40 to 26. The Beaver Dam game was a little tougher, but after playing a good game, Watertown won 36 to 32. One of the outstanding plays of the night was Jim Hoffman's push shot from the side of the floor right before the first half ended. Watertown's first setback of the season came in the Whitefish Bay game. Our boys couldn't hit the hoop; also, Don Fee was hurt early in the game and most of our players had the flu.

We got back on the victory bandwagon in the Columbus game. The score was close, 42 to 39, but our boys had things under control throughout the game. The team just had an off day when they played North Fond du Lac; they couldn't get the offense going. When we were defeated in the Wauwatosa game it was no fault of ours, as those Red Raiders are just too good. They proved it too, by becoming state champs.

Ah, victory again and it surely seemed good after two straight defeats. Oconomowoc was the victim this time. Edgewood defeated us in the next game 54 to 38, but one of Watertown's better memories of that game was Ken Nehring's 19 points. "Stretch" was really "on" that night and played a whale of a game. Jack Fendt also played a good game, stealing the ball almost at will from the Crusaders' guards.

The defeat by Horicon 40 to 39 was a tough one to lose. Ken Nehring had 15 points the first half, but in the second period the boys from Horicon had Ken pretty well bottled up and he scored only 2 points.

Revenge tasted very sweet as we defeated Whitefish Bay 45 to 43. It helped to even things as Whitefish Bay was ahead 12 points at the end of three quarters, when the boys in blue got hot. With thirty seconds to go, Don Fee tied the score at 43 all and then with five seconds on the clock, Jim Hoffman put in the winning bucket.

The Goslings had an "off" day and they suffered a 40 to 30 defeat at the hands of Ripon. The loss was a big disappointment to Don Fee as he would have liked nothing better than to beat the boys from his home town.

The Goslings really controlled the ball in a hard fought game with Port Washington. Our boys gobbled rebounds off both boards and thus gained a well earned 37 to 35 victory. It was Jim Craine's birthday and the team gave him a present that he'll remember for a long time.

The Watertown Team won another 42 to 41 victory over Beaver Dam. This made two close games in a row, but we weren't complaining as long as we won them. Jim Hoffman won the game in the last few seconds, as he calmly dumped in two free throws. But the real hero of the game was Don Fee, who had a very good night and was high scorer with 19 points.

Watertown ran into a red hot North Fond du Lac team and suffered a 52 to 44 defeat. The boys in blue played a very good game, but they just couldn't stop North Fondy. This was the second time Fondy beat us.

Watertown had another bad night and was trounced soundly by a good Port Washington team. This was the first game that Ken Nehring missed because of an appendectomy and the rest of the team just couldn't seem to realize that big boy wasn't in there gobbling up the rebounds.

The defeat at the hands of a hot Oconomowoc team was by no means the fault of the Goslings. The difference was a kid named Wilkinson.

Teamwork was the password the night of the Edgewood game. The whole team played a whale of a game to defeat Edgewood, 48 to 40. Don Fee was the hot shot of the night as he collected 21 points for individual honors, but the whole team should be given credit for playing a swell game.

We played Wauwatosa. The Goslings played a very good game despite it all, but they just couldn't avoid the 54 to 37 defeat.

TOURNAMENT

The W. I. A. A. tournament at Columbus was a bitter disappointment to most of the Water-town fans this year, as the Goslings dropped two straight games to be eliminated from competition. The boys just couldn't get their bearings the first night, they lost to Columbus 39 to 27. The second night they played a lot better game, but a last minute splurge gave Madison East a 49 to 36 victory. One of the few high pointers of the game was Jim Craine's free throw record. The burly forward made 9 straight for a tournament record of the most free throws made by one player in a single game.

The interclass Boys' basketball tournament of this year was different than in previous years. An elimination tournament instead of a round robin tournament was played. As far as stopping the Seniors, it failed, because they are champions, again, as they were in the two years previous. The Juniors gave them a good battle in the championship game by leading through the whole game, till the Seniors tied them in the third quarter and then splurged ahead. The Seniors held the Juniors in the fourth quarter to two points, winning by eight at the end of the game. The Sophomores beat the Freshmen by one point for consolation honors.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS
CHEERLEADERS

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

"Have you a book I can read for English?"

Many times a library assistant has answered that question. Each period one girl is assigned to the library. Her duties include the collecting of slips and alphabetizing them.

After a new shipment of books arrive, the assistants are busy shellacking, numbering, slipping and pocketing them. It is a taste of genuine library work.

Plus gaining book knowledge the assistant librarian, has a chance to improve her personality working with people.

This year's capable working girls are: Pauline Sterwaldt, Joan Zimmermann, Elaine Maass, Joan Buchert, Doris Ihde, Jim Richart, Hazel Saniter, Shirley Englebrecht, and Mary Goecke. The advisor is Miss Grothman.

"We've got the coach, the team, the pep, the steam—and we've got the cheerleaders!"

The following feminine goslings helped to spurn our boys to victory this year whether on the field or court. Top honors go to you—Ruthie Ebert, Rita Winkler, Rosie Storbeck, Jayne Higgins, Mary Ann Schatz, and Bette Uttech. Co-sharers of the honors go to you—Pat Murphy, Shirley Tiews, Kate Hrobsky, Delores Luedtke, Joyce Backus, and Dorothy Stueber.

New formations and new cheers were presented this year and rated with all the W. H. S. Jill's and Jack's. They also willingly donated their time to many strenuous practices. "A toast to you, the colorbearers of our great little school."

GERMAN CLUB DEBATE

German Club

The purpose of this club is to acquaint the members with the cultural background and customs of the German people, to give them more practice in speaking German, and to help them gain a greater understanding of the contributions of the Germans to the world at large. The singing of German folk songs, which all the students enjoy, is an important part of each meeting. At Christmas time, German records were played and "Weihnachtslieder" were sung.

Some dolls were dressed in styles representing various costumes worn in many different sections of Germany. Topics on great men of literature, science, and art were discussed. Simple plays not only entertain them, but give them a chance to test their understanding of German.

The Debate Squad of W. H. S. has been very active this year. The question debated was: "Resolved, that the United States government should provide a system of compulsory arbitration of labor in all basic American industries."

After attending two practice tournaments at Waupun and Jefferson, the squad went to Madison to the district tournament where, winning 4 out of 6 debates, it was privileged to compete in the sectional tournament.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA
BOYS TUMBLING

Juture Homemakers Club

A club of great value to its members is the newly organized F. H. A.—Future Homemakers of America. Some of its purposes are to encourage democracy in home and community life, to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking, and to provide wholesome individual and group recreation. The club colors are red and white which are symbolic of youth. Its flower is the red rose, which is a symbol of vibrant glowing health and the club motto is, "Toward New Horizions." There are two groups of homemakers clubs. The officers in group A are President, Nancy Brier; Vice-President, Donna Zeiman; Secretary, Patricia Simon; Treasurer, I-rene Hoefs; Reporter, Marion Beine; Parliamentarian, Rita Hady; Historian, Dorothy Heiden; Song Leader, Lorraine Wanke. Officers in Group B are President, Janice Raether; Vice-President, Lillian Peirick; Secretary, Lucille Tietz; Treasurer, Darlene Zimdars; Reporter and Parliamentarian, Margaret Pitterle; Historian and Song Leader, Doris Zastrow; Advisor, Miss Tanz.

Jumbling Club

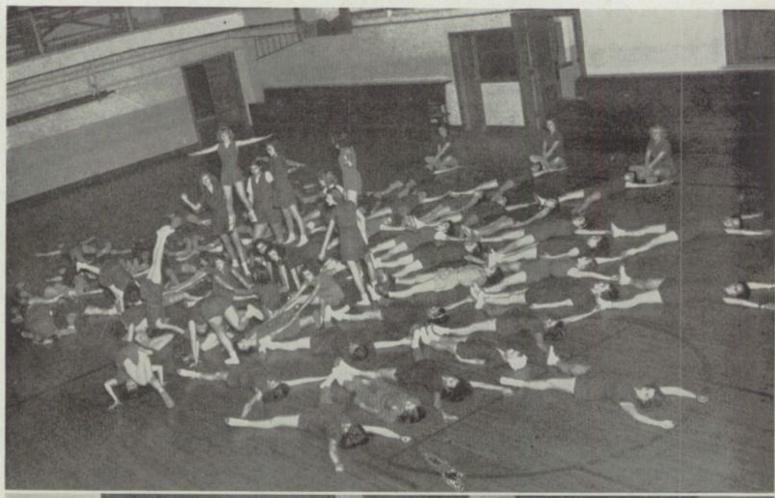

Many people have the idea that the only activity of the tumbling club is tumbling. This probably comes from the fact that it is called by that name alone, and because the only publicity it gets is its tumbling during the halves of home basketball games. Although the main purpose of the club is to produce better tumblers, much time is spent on other sports such as touch football, basketball, and baseball.

This year the club had an exceedingly large number of members, therefore it was split into three groups. In winter two of these tumble, while the third plays basketball. The three groups rotate at every meeting. During the warmer months the bi-weekly meetings alternate, outdoors and indoors.

Most of the members look forward to tumbling every Thursday because it gives them a chance to practice and attempt new acrobatics. This practice gives the members quite an edge on the other students in the gym classes. Also, accomplishing some new flip or sommersault develops self-confidence, which every boy should have.

BOYS CLUB

Boys Club

The object of the Boys Club is to discuss problems and to help boys solve them. The important problems discussed are: political, social, racial, and religious. Topics are assigned for each meeting, at which time they are thoroughly gone over.

The activity in which the Boys Club engages is that of preparing the gymnasium for important dances and other major social events.

Girls Club

This past year the Girls Club has divided into two distinct groups, which work together on certain main projects. The Sophomores are in one branch supervised by Miss Halbach, and the Juniors and Seniors in the other, supervised by Miss Griffith. Together these clubs perform beneficial services to make the name of W. H. S. one of pride.

A few of the outstanding tasks that the Girls Club accomplished this year were to give assistance to the Red Cross in their drive to pack boxes for the poor during Christmas and the support which its members gave the Polio Drive, when they were called upon to do so.

Because the Girls Club is quite active, its meetings are of the same type. Among the "hits" of the year was a joint meeting, at which attention was given to Chief Voigt during a discussion of juvenile delinquency. Another joint meeting was devoted to a Christmas program during which talented members of the club, together with outsiders, perform.

Separate meetings introduced Miss Faber to the Sophomores, and Mrs. R. Ebert, to the Juniors and Seniors. The former dealt in book reviews and the latter in art work.

These two groups, together with the Boys Club, are invited to attend the annual Hi-Y and Tri Hi-Y Conferences. Delegates are chosen to appear at the conferences which consist of meetings where different topics are discussed a luncheon, entertainment, and a final banquet in the evening.

Listed among the schedule was the meeting with the Boys Club to discuss the likes and dislikes of issues prominent at the time. This last year drew a heated argument about long skirts and dark stockings prevalent in the present feminine wear.

The meeting of most importance to all members came at the end of the school year. Both clubs attend this annual banquet, at which the officers of both clubs are honored.

Junior Prom

"Star-lite Roof", romantic atmosphere of the famous Waldorf-Astoria ball-room, was the setting for dancers at the 1948 Junior Prom. Large painted murals created a pattern of the skyline of New York. Accenting the romantic atmosphere was a soft blue and gray sky with shining stars and a full moon rising over Manhattan Bay.

The junior class president Jack Bentheimer and his date, Joan Zimmermann officiated at the coronation of the king and queen. The royal couple, Jack Fendt and JoAnn Kehr, led the grand march followed by their court of honor, which was composed of the following couples: Kenneth Kropf and Dorothy Stueber, William Trachte and Margaret Hollenbeck, Thomas Wenck and Mary Ann Schatz, William Rathert and Lois Wonn, Robert Weaver and Janice Kuehnemann, Donna Richter and Robert Radtke. As the couples proceeded down the center of the gym their names were announced by Harold Magnan, master of ceremonies.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE SOCIAL CLUB

The Social Club members meet for the purpose of getting better acquainted by playing games. Courtesies such as introductions, and school etiquette in corridors are practiced. The distribution of leadership, is enacted by brief hikes and organizing group activities like bingo, dancing, and parties. The officers are: President—Judy Cramer, Vice-President—Helen Hoof, Secretary Jean Ann Gerth, Advisor—Miss Burns.

SHARPS AND FLATS

The members of the Junior High Sharps and Flats Club sing every type of music, such as: "Bless This House," "The Freedom Train," and "I'm Looking Over a Four-Leaf Clover." They are not a concert group, but true to the title of their theme song, they "Sing, Sing, Sing for the Joy of It." The officers are: President—June Barnes, Vice-President—Jane Johannsen, Secretary-Treasurer—Carol Bast, Pages—Joan Bliese, Pat Coogan, Advisor—Miss Onsager.

JUNIOR HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL

This very busy group of Junior High students are elected by their fellow students as their representatives. There is a number of things the Junior High Student Council does.

The assembly program on April 28 was sponsored by this group. The display case in the Junior High corridor is their project. Some of the displays have given the students a greater interest in activities with which they are not at all familiar. Another of their works are the posters which appear on the bulletin boards calling attention to bad habits. In every way possible they try to raise the school spirit.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE GIFT MAKING

The Gift-Making Club has for its purpose the making of such gifts as mittens, rugs, doilies and jewelry. Club pins are earned on a system of merit points.

The officers are:

Vice-President Secretary	Audrey Kaercher Helen Hoof Jean Ann Gerth Miss Burns
Vice-President Secretary	Ruth Knight Joan Sprenger Donna Thiede Mrs. Kaercher

NINTH GRADE GIFT MAKING

During the meetings of this club the girls have learned to make many useful gifts. Stenciling on cloth and pom-pom rug making, were the two most popular gift ideas of the year.

President	Beverly Blank
Vice-President	Patricia Hoffer
Secretary	Virginia Pfeiffer
Advisor	Miss Kreiziger

NINTH GRADE DRAMATICS

This Ninth Grade Dramatic Club functioned this year as an active organization of thirty-seven girls and six boys. With a constant rotation of program committee members, each one in the club received a chance to exhibit his talents in dramatic ability and in organization and planning of the program. Through the year much interesting work was done in the presentation of plays, leaving each member anxious to begin his work next year with the senior high school dramatic clubs.

President	Barbara	Draeger
Vice-President	P240 HIELD	Riemer
Secretary	June	Barnes
Advisor	Miss G	rothman

NINTH GRADE GIRLS CLUB

The Ninth Grade Girls Club endeavors to develop a pleasing personality in its members and to have them assist with school and community projects. The first of these, is studied by having group discussions during the meetings. To accomplish the latter, the club has made scrapbooks to be sent to childrens' hospitals, has decorated the bulletin boards in the Junior High School, and has aided in packing Junior Red Cross boxes to be sent to children abroad.

JUNIOR BOYS CLUB

Membership in the Junior Boys Club is made up of boys in the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades. It was organized for the following purposes: to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school, high standards of character; to provide an opportunity of following a purpose of activities based on the needs and interests of junior high school boys. A minimum requirement for all members is to assume the responsibility of participating in at least one group discussion or activity during the year. The officers for the past year were:

President	Bob Stallman
Vice-President	Larry Sprenger
Secretary	Reuben Schulz
Advisor	Mr. Loughlin

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club is established for the purpose of providing scientifically talented students the opportunity to increase their knowledge of science, to learn to perfect skills in science through individual projects and experiments, and to learn to recognize the service science gives to our community and nation.

President	Dick Chipman
Vice-President
Secretary	Shari Rohr

FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

JIM CRAINE: Center—Captain Jim was chosen for all-state. He was a big "cog" offensively and defensively, and a three year letterman.

BILL KOENIG: End—A good defensive man and we'll miss him next year.

JACK NEUBAUER: Back—Jack was our hard charging fullback. Whenever he was given the ball, a gain could be expected.

KEN NEHRING: End—Lanky Ken was a good receiver and helped out on defense. Due to knee injury his season was incomplete.

DON FEE: End—Although light, Don used his weight advantageously—no one ever got past Don. He was outstanding as a pass receiver.

TOM DOERING: Guard—Tom had a good year until he was injured in the Marinette game. Full of fight, he stopped many of the opponents plays.

JIM HOFFMAN: End—"Point-after" man and a real pass threat. Jim had good spirit and worked hard.

FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

BILL WALLMAN: Halfback—A hard worker, full of spirit—all describe Bill.

DON WILKE: Halfback—"Fast" is the word that describes Don's running. He was a good blocker even though hindered by "goggles."

BOB WEAVER: Halfback—Although hindered by poor vision, Buck was a valuable man on line backing.

PETE MADZAR: Tackle—Pete didn't play much this year, but when he did, he could be counted on to hold his own.

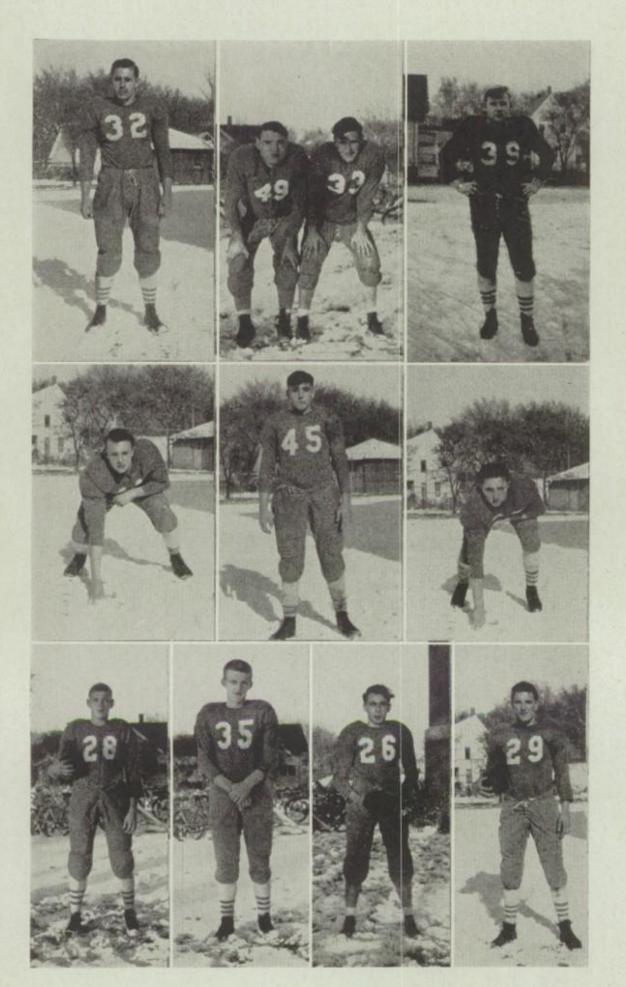

ART SCHMIDT: "Smitty", the man the players always welcomed on the field. A truly great manager.

BILL BONGARD: Quarterback—"Aggressive" is the word for Bill. Height never worried him and he gave all he could for W.H.S.

DON BRINK: Guard—"Lover" started in the backfield, but was shifted to guard. He was a hard charger, tackler, and a fast runner.

DON NOWATZKI: End—Don always had lots of spirit, and when he went into the game he showed a lot of fight.

SCOTT BENTZIN: Guard—Scott played an unusually aggressive game at guard, holding his own against all opposition.

FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

DON KOCH: Tackle—Don's line play earned him a starting berth on the varsity. He could always be counted on to hold his side of the line.

FRITZ TESTER: Tackle—"Tes" played in only a few games due to an injury, but when he did play, we knew he was in there tackling.

DAN COOGAN: Guard—A hard worker and essential first-string man.

WILFORD BORTH: Tackle—"Blimpo" did a swell job at tackle this year. Weight and fight are a good combination.

HAROLD MAGNAN: Tackle—Harry held down his position very well and we could always count on him for plenty of fight.

BILL RATHERT: Tackle—Bill's weight was a valuable asset to this year's squad.

EVERETT MALLOW: Guard—Ev performed very well at a difficult guard spot this season.

PALMER OESTREICH: Back—Although
"Acey" was only a Junior, he gained a starting position at halfback. His running was a thing of beauty.

OTIS BEYER: Fullback—Otie's punts pulled us out of several very bad situations and we hope he does the same next year.

JACK FENDT: Quarterback—Jack's running, passing, and defensive play made him stand out among the players. He was given honorable mention for all-state honors.

DICK ZEINER: Halfback—Although at the start of the season Dick was a reserve back, he came up fast to a starting berth.

Bob Weaver Ken Nehring Bill Koenig Captain" Jim Craine Don Fee Jim Hoffman Bill Trachte Jack Fendt Lovie Kuckkan

BASKETBALL LETTERMEN

BILL KOENIG: Forward—Bill's height was a great advantage. Besides having the best shooting record on the team, he was a fine defensive man.

BUCK WEAVER: Forward—Buck was a good defensive player. His best performance was against Edgewood on the local floor, when he intercepted passes in the middle of their offense.

KEN NEHRING: Center—Ken's height of six feet, four inches made him the "handy-man" of the team. He was the outstanding rebound man and was second high in scoring, though he missed all the February games due to an appendectomy.

JIM CRAINE: Forward—Appreciated for his defense work, burly Jim also used his weight and height well under the bucket and on rebounds. Defensive men never knew what Jim would do, as he was clever at deceptive ball handling.

DON FEE: Guard—Captain and high scorer of the team. Don was conspicuous for his consistent enthusiasm which kept up the fighting morale. His aggressive play and deadly long shots will be remembered for pulling games out of the fire. He had the best free throw percentage on the team.

JIM HOFFMAN: Guard—Jim was known for his fancy ball handling and for the way he calmly added those two points that won several games in the last few seconds of play. Jim had an excellent gift shot record; when he stepped on the free throw line, one felt sure another point could be rung up.

BILL TRACHTE: Forward—Bill will be back next year to exhibit his ability on rebounds and set shots. In the local Port game, he started us off on a victory flight by dropping in three quick shots.

LOUIE KUCKKAN: Manager—Louie was one of the best in managers, having everything ready without being prodded. He was popular with both Coach and players.

JACK FENDT: Guard—Jack was very adept at ball stealing and also clever at ball handling. His two years' experience will prove valuable next season.

THEORBIT

The Class of 1948 feels proud of the honors, traditions, and achievements of their school and city. We are members of the seventy-fifth high school graduating class.

Our city provided the first free text books in its school. To quote from the text of the Centennial Pageant:

"The state superintendent expressed his opinion with regard to the matter as follows:

'After a very careful inquiry, and much consideration, I am entirely persuaded that the free text-book plan, under wise restrictions, is, for cities and villages at least, every way better than the old personal ownership plan. I commend it unreservedly to your city, and hope Watertown will have the honor and advantage of being the first city in Wisconsin to inaugurate the reform.'

Watertown did have this honor, as it adopted the plan on April 16, 1877. The adoption of this plan testifies to the fore-sightedness and alertness to new trends of the Board of Education of Watertown as early as 1877."

In the field of education we boast of another achievement in early history also recounted in the Centennial Pageant:

"Way back in 1849 in Germany, an attractive, intelligent girl by the name of Margaritha Meyer had the forthright courage to be interested in a rather revolutionary approach to pre-school education. At sixteen she decided to enter the school of Fredrich Froebel at Hamburg. He had developed the theory of instructing small children through supervised play. Later this woman married Carl Schurz, an ardent revolutionary, a fugitive from the oppressive German system and a sincere believer in the democratic way of life. Together they emigrated to the U. S. to search for the freedom they both sought, and in the summer of 1856 they came to Watertown where they settled down in what is now known as Karlshuegel. Mrs. Schurz's carefully nurtured enthusiasm for Froebel's cause now had an opportunity for individual expression and in the fall of that year she opened what is now authentically known as the first kindergarten in America. Her pioneer efforts in the field of education have been historically recognized and have been largely responsible for the growth and development of the kindergarten movement in this country, in which the Froebel Method is still largely in use.

In more recent years our school has been honored with two state basketball championships, several district and league athletic championships, and district and state honors in Forensics.

A majority of our candidates have won top places in a state examination on the U. S. Constitution. Recently a graduate received second national prize, of five hundred dollars, in an Elks' scholarship contest, based on outstanding leadership.

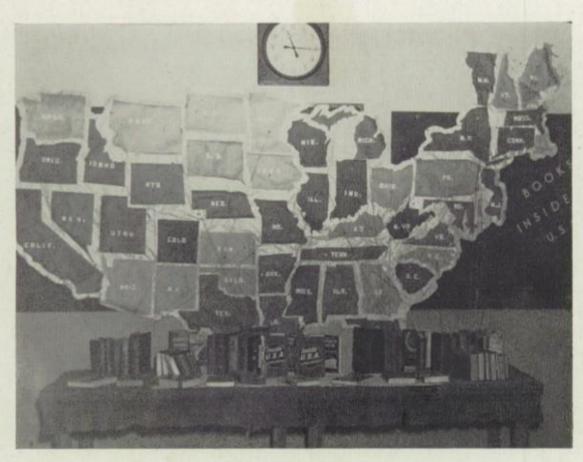

Tradition and historical background assert themselves as we senior girls proudly attend the annual A.A.U.W. tea at Karlshuegel and when we take our visitors to see the Octagon House.

Watertown High School was one of the first to offer Speech Correction and to receive a state award for teaching Driver Education five years.

Not the least of our honors is to have been instructed by a competent, interested faculty in a modern, attactive building.

Dear Diary,

Today a truly new source of interest has entered my life. This morning, at long last Mother agreed that I could go to the theater, but it was to be understood that I go with Thomas Sutherland. Thomas Sutherland! How could anybody be so inhuman. He was hardly old enough! As I remembered last summer he was that pest who came over to eat Libby's fancy cakes and crullers and stayed only until they were gone. Hadn't I always dreamed of a smooth Broadway escort, wearing a high hat, a light silk waistcoat with a heavy watch-chain and oh—just lots of fur. But at the moment I knew my chances for such a person were quite far distant. It would have to be Thomas if I were to go and I just had to......just think, to see Wilson Barrett, the brilliant English actor who was touring America. Why, I'd be the envy of every girl in the neighborhood.

All morning I gladly felt the torture of crimping-pins so I wouldn't have to braid my hair for the occasion. Around seven o'clock Grandmother Van Kortlandt came up and with her long, deft fingers she slid the soft, silk dress over my head. As the time slipped by, I only hoped that Thomas would remember to wear his peg-tops and his patent-leather boots. And oh! if he would only try not to be so awkward.

When he arrived it was almost eight. He looked so tall in his black suit and high, white collar; he might have been a man of twenty-one. He approached me in a grown-up manner. His face was unusually serious. A tide of warmth swept through me, loosening queer, tight places. I began to smile, not the usual grin I flash at him, but a new kind of smile. The ruffles of my skirt danced as we walked out and it gave me that butterfly feeling that I liked. Nothing, I know, will ever be quite the same. There was Thomas and the way he looked at me. And there was my sudden disinterest in an English actor. Dear Diary, don't you think it's perfectly lovely to be grown-up?

Dear Diary,

Today I had quite an unusual experience. As I was standing on a street corner this afternoon, a middle-aged man shouted to me from across the street. "Hey, you, over there in the jeans and bobby sox. Yes, you—come here! How would you like to go back with me about fifty years to the 'Gay Nineties'? How was the period in history when the genteel little ladies wore long, hoop skirts and bustles—the 'New Look' to you; when the carriages drawn by stately looking horses clattered down the streets; and the little old lamplighter would wander from lamp to lamp, lighting the way." He sighed as he saw a young couple strolling toward the park—then, suddenly, he smiled, seeing a scrupulous chaperone, carefully watching every move they tried to make.

But they did have a bit of excitement in those days, too. As we span the map, we notice a colorful little spot in New York, known as the Bowery. Ah, yes—the Bowery, the place where men were men. But let us have a look at this gay little district. As we meander down the lane, we come upon an exceptionally noisy little cafe—guns roaring, music (?) blaring, people shouting, and, oh my, someone just came flying through those swinging doors! Who knows—it could have been grandpa!

"Well Little Miss Bobby Sox, we must be on our way—but if you think you kids have all the fun, just think of grandma. Goodbye, now". And the man was gone!

Dear Diary,

Today Jeff and I are on our annual visit to Uncle Clem, who owns a harness shop on the outskirts of Milwaukee. Early this morning, four A. M. to be exact, Jeff hitched Amose and Matilda to our surrey and after locking up the house we started our "Journey of the Year."

Paying our toll of one gold piece, we are now rolling along the new-fangled Watertown Plank Road. As we go, we can't help remarking how smooth the logs are and what work it must have taken to make the road.

Ixonia flew by at six o'clock and now the ride is becoming boring. To pass the time I begin counting the planks as we roll over them. As my head is aching, I give up counting.

I remembered I had brought a copy of Harper's Weekly with my luggage, so soon I'm engrossed in an article called "Styles of 1898."

Say, this seat is getting harder the longer we ride and the road seems to be bumpier. Maybe it only seems that way.

Jeff tells me that we should hit Pewaukee by noon, if we hurry. Boy, did we make time!

Pewaukee at last! Look at those hell-divers on the lake. They look like toy ducks on a giant ocean.

We stop off at Schnickle's Inn for our noon meal and rest. When it is time to leave Jeff asks me to drive and we are off.

Now we are on our last leg of the trip. Milwaukee, here we come!

We arrive with our spines out of place, a good headache, and tired; but we are in good spirits. Aren't we lucky to have such a fine road as the Watertown Plank Road?

Dear Diary,

Today I started out on a trip to Florida on my horse. After I rode thirty miles, the horse died of exhaustion. Then I walked fifteen miles to the next city. Well, there were no horses to be bought, but there was a gadget there with two wheels and a frame—also a seat and a pair of handle bars. They call that gadget a bicycle. Well, I got on and then tried to ride it. First, I fell and cut my finger; then I tried again, but this time I fell in the mud with my best riding pants on. Oh, were they some riding pants, blue with pink stripes! I also wore red socks, black boots, and a green shirt. I got mad and mounted the bike and paddled for one and a half hours. Then came more bad luck. The front wheel fell off and so did I. I walked until I got a ride with a man who had a horse and a wagon. It was hard riding, but it was better than walking.

In the next town I finally bought a horseless carriage and tried to start it but I couldn't, so the salesman did it for me and I was Florida bound. But, dear diary, here I am tonight, home, and not in Florida. The horseless carriage got started in the wrong direction and I couldn't stop it.

We passed my home town wide open, going ten miles an hour, but down two blocks it stopped. I wondered why no gas, no money, no horse, no bike, no shoes. What have I got to show for this Adventure? Well, I never wanted to go to Florida anyway.

Dear Diary,

Soft moonlight is coming in through my bedroom window, and silver beams are tripping the light fantastic on the carpet.

Twelve years ago was just such a night. I was telling the moon to hurry to bed and cover up with a fleecy cloud. I was in a big hurry to begin my first day of school. Let's see—I had on a pink chiffon dress tied with a heavenly blue sash, and a hair bow to match. White cotton stockings and black patent leather shoes completed my costume.

I can remember standing in front of the big mirror in the hall, picturing myself a beautiful sorceress bewitching everybody with my looks. It was awful to come back to earth, to see the turrets and walls fall away from my castle in the air. For you see, the girl across from me, Agnes, had every boy up to third grade looking at her.

Twelve short years suddenly ended with graduation. Hank gave me a make-up mirror with powder in the back of it. (I like powder much better than cornstarch.) He told me I was the best looking girl in the graduating class.

I guess I blushed when he said that.

I can see the North Star now. It's old, but still bright and shiny. It will be my star to guide me. I like to think maybe Cleopatra or Marie Antoinette turned to the same star when they needed solace. Maybe they saw the same special twinkle, too. Who knows?

Until tomorrow, goodnight dear diary.

Herbert Goetsch "48"

Nov. 3, 1895

Dear Diary,

Today was a big day for me. I played my first game of college football. We really knocked that Yale team to pieces. We tore them limb from limb. The score was 56 to 6, so you can see why I feel the way I do.

There were a few important events in the game. I can remember big Jim Hopenstien tripping and falling on the one yard line after he had just made a nice 96 yard run. Big John Bowley got his leg broken today. He was the best center we had on the team. They carried him off the field on a stretcher. The doctor says it isn't a very bad fracture.

After the game there was a dance. I went down-town to get my girl friend and went to the dance. Her name is Lydia and is she a peach. "What a babe!" When you're dancing with her, she floats like a feather.

After the dance we went down-town and had an ice cream cone. Then we went home.

Tonight was the first night I kissed her goodnight. She seemed to like me and I think I'm going to like her.

Today sure was my lucky day!

OUR LITTLE HIGH SCHOOL GIRL

A good many girls are sweet, A good many girls are shy, A good many girls are modest, And a good many girls are sly. But our little Watertown High School girl Is different from the rest, She's coy, and cute, and crazy, And she's got pep and zest. She walks with a cute little wiggle, She talks in a cute little way, She dances as light as a feather, And she has the cleverest things to say. She's noted as being a heartbreaker, The boys all call her "keen." She's got that certain something, (If you know what I mean!) There's no other person like her, On that point we all agree. But here's the question we wish to ask, Do you know her? No? Neither do we!!

Now I lay me down to rest,
Before I take tomorrow's test.
If I should die before I wake,
Thank heaven! I have no test to take.
(Dedicated to Jean Chase)

MY HAT

Why tear its tattered ribbon off?

Two years it waved in the wind,
And many a boy with envy was green,

To see that hat draw a grin.
He wore it with a touch of pride,

For it truly was a tradition.
And down through the years he wore it—

To part with it would mean oblivion!

(Dedicated to Butchie Beyer and his gray "sombrero")

THE MANHUNT

He certainly led us a merry CHASE. He went thru the BARNES, and then up to the MARSH, but he was tiring fast as we were NEHRING the BRINK of the BROOKS. He was forced to wait for a FERRY to take him across. Pressed for time, he decided to WADE instead, and hoping to throw us off the track by making a NOYES like a KUHN or a WOLFE (he could even ROHR like a lion), he went GUNNING up the hill. The NICKELS he had stolen would soon be returned. But he could take it like a MANN!

What a character he was! He acted like a KING driving a car with a missing FINDER. His occupation was a TESTER of BOLTZ. He was also a BEYER for a BUSS Co. where he charged a pretty FEE. He was a real CASANOVA full of WITT, and the clothes he would WARE! They were tailor-made by a WEAVER from whom he always STOLL a ROSE to put in his lapel. He was forever trying to SELL WEBER tonsil tonic. He didn't have a KEHR in the world, and he was always asking for MOHR.

I GOTTA LIVE TO SEE

FIVE RULES OF WISDOM THE WISE MEN FORGOT

1-It is unwise to chew gum in study hall. The teacher might ask for half.

2-It is unwise to study any subject for longer than ten minutes. You might get a nervous breakdown and start an epidemic.

3-It is unwise to copy from a student in a test. He might have the wrong answer. Always copy from your text book to be sure you are right.

4-It is unwise to mark up seats in a study hall with your pencil The point might break and then where would

5-It is unwise to rush to school or to classes. After all, we do want to live to that ripe old age.....

HERE OR THERE!

Jim Brink: (bragging) "All the kids in our class got detentions yesterday, except me." Shirl Holstein: "How come?" Jim Brink: "I was absent."

Mrs. Haigh: "I was married on Christmas." Miss Ott: "Oh, you were Yule tied."

Marie Trebian: "Look at those cute puppies! I'd buy one if I had ten dollars," Helen Imming: "What! Ten dollars for those pups, why look at them shiver! I can buy a hot dog for ten cents.

Don Brink: "I am going to steal a kiss." Charlotte S: "Let the crime wave begin!"

John Donahue: "How do you like my Cinderella tux? Tom Doering: "What's a Cinderella tux?" John Donahue: "It has to be back by twelve o'clock."

Dick Zeiner: (showing his new blueprint drawing) "Now here is a room without a flaw." Willy Borth: "My gosh, what do you walk on?"

Gert Euper: Why wasn't Eve afraid of the measles?" Jackie Barry: "Because she had Adam."

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

2—We again hear the pitter-patter of little feet and meek little voices of students new and old. Our diary this year should be very interesting.

3—Back in the old routine was rather difficult when we loafed (?) all summer, but, we try.

4—First orbit staff meeting of the year tonight, but there seems to be a shortage of boys!! Assignment of seats in study halls and classes too. Tough luck everyone, just when you were sitting near that "special" person.

5-Activity cards were given out today and so now school is in full swing.

8—"Mac" greeted the senior history students with a test today.—Rather low grades, right, Gert?

10—One of our classmates, Wayne Crass, was killed in a motorcycle accident during the week-end. The day seems rather empty. Quite a few students attended his funeral.

12—First football game tonight against Ripon, and the cheerleaders gave the boys a good bit of moral support, despite the rain.

16—Latest news report—flash—one of our most "distinguished" senior boys was smoking his first cigarette (off school property, of course). How about it, Herbie?

18—We had a very interesting assembly today by Mr. Hook. He told and showed us a movie on Alaska. Surely would like to go fishing there.

19—The new teachers were introduced at our second pep meeting. They all have a lot of confidence in our football team. We play Janesville tonight.

22—The boys put up a good fight against Janesville, but couldn't win.

Better luck next time!

23—Let's have a little quiz: Jeanne, who had a come-as-you-are party last night? Art, who embarassed a certain girl (you didn't know she was there till later)? Helen I., Gert E., and Jean R., why aren't some of you "steadies" speaking?

24—Voting of class officers today—best of luck everyone.

25—The 9:29 speech class really was the down-fall for a certain senior boy. Why not learn how to sit on a chair, Paul N.?

26-Mr. Herreid surprised everyone by giving one of his special definition tests in geometry. We'll learn to study, sometime!

29—What were those five girls doing in Mr. Joseph's car at 3:40? A party some place—come, come, Mr. Joseph.

OCTOBER

2—Alonzo Pond was the attraction in the auditorium for our Assembly Program. His subject was vocations, something really to think about! By the way Mr. Hinterberg told a joke—Joke that is!

3—Hildegard B. seemed pretty embarassed during 11:03 study hall—

What happened Hildy? Ask Jim C.—he knows.

6—Wonder what fascinated John Strahota in 2:50 and—Could it be Jean R. a couple of rows behind him?

7—Louie Kuckkan really appreciated real literature at 2:50. How's "Superman" coming along Louie?

8-Mary Goecke seems to have quite a bit of fun with that "mouse" around school!!

9—Teddy N. had his daily snack in 2:50 and.—you'll never learn, Teddy, that it's much easier to wait until 3:40. Now you stay until 4:20!

10—The football team left for Marinette this morning, with high spirits.

Bill Bongard was one exception though. He doubted whether he could last through the day without his history class with "Mac". (I wonder if the feelings are mutual Bill??)

13—Coach Grabow, if I faint will you carry me out too??

14—Coach Landsverk really received a surprise this morning when his homeroom sang "Happy Birthday" for him. What happened to the speech, Coach?

15—And so tonight we get report cards. Cheer up, kids!!

16—Tonight's the big night—homecoming parade and bonfire. Tomorrow night, homecoming game against Eau Claire, and Saturday night, the dance. What a week-end!! Hope we don't have too many assignments.

17-Who was the most observant of "Fuzzy's" walking out of study hall?

Could it have been Jim H.???

20—Barb J. told her homeroom of how the 7th and 8th grade girls swoon over Mr. James. Now were you blushing, Mr. James?

22-Jim Craine was elected in 10:16 history class to wear the wolf head left over from Miss MacInnis' homecoming float. Why, Jim!!

23—Does "she" keep Dan Coogan out so late that he has to sleep during 1:10 auditorium?

28-How did that moonlight hike turn out? Seems as if one group hiked out to the two-miler only to find that the other group hadn't done so!

30—Bob Weaver didn't realize his own strength when he broke his desk during the 1:10 College English Class. Those "Charles Atlas" lessons are beginning to take effect.

31-Mr. James: Keep quiet.

Barb K: Bill's tearing my paper.

Mr. James: Bill give it back to the lady.

Jim H.: Back to the what?

Mr. James: Hoffman, you're chewing gum. I'll see you at 3:40!

NOVEMBER

3—The seniors were told today that they could get their class rings and pins. Now we will be able to distinguish the senior girls, or will we?? How about it boys?

5—Now, why do Jean C., Gert E., and Nancy M., always have to go over to Strege's during the last period?

- 11—Mr. Ben Hammond, an artist, gave an assembly today. He was very good, doing trick artistry with numbers and also a beautiful waterfall scene at the end.
- 14—John Donahue must have such an over-supply of pencils in 2:50 auditorium that he can throw them around.

17—Laughs were plentiful today when Miss Onsager told us about that "ripping" game of ping-pong she played last night.

18—Why was Don Fee running around in the library at 10:16 today?

Someone must have been chasing him. How about it?

19—The movie in the auditorium today was a thriller—Sherlock Holmes.

20—The assembly program this morning was given by Mr. Eliza R. Brown, a memory wizard. Wish some of us had such good memories. Mary Hamm and Jim Hoffman did very well in proving "it can be done."

21—Today the three one-act plays and the radio play were presented to the school. Swell acting, kids!

24—A radio sound effects discussion was held in Speech today after which Miss Mickelson asked if there were any questions as to how sound effects were produced. Don B. asked, "How about a kiss?" Of course, you meant how the sound was produced, didn't you, Don?

26—The band concert this afternoon was a sort of Thanksgiving Day present. Especially enjoyed was the novelty "The Three Trees".

DECEMBER

1—Had a fire drill today. While everyone stood outside shivering and freezing, Miss Gruner exclaimed, "My, isn't this invigorating!!"

2-We heard the good news today that Harriet Chase auditioned for

Radio City's "Young Wisconsin Artists."

3—Otto Schatz, singer, gave an assembly this morning. We have heard

Mr. Schatz before and he is a wonderful philosopher and singer.

4—Yesterday was the Tri-City Student Council meeting with representatives from Jefferson and Beaver Dam present. Boys, you can stop staring at all the pretty girls!

5—The seniors who are taking the Elks Constitution test are cramming today for it. Good Luck, kids!

6—Isn't it about time that JoAnn Kehr and her girl friends gained admittance to the library again?

8-Otie Beyer has a new "flame." In case anyone is curious, her initials are S. W. How was the show Friday, Otie??

9—Miss Mickelsen explained to us that she was near-sighted, but she didn't realize how badly until today. Bill B. reached for a cough drop and she said, "Bill, put that tobacco away this instant!!!!"

10—Miss MacInnis wants to know if Helen I. can join someone's basketball squad. She has been practicing on Miss Mac's wastepaper basket at 11:03.

12-I wonder just how much Jean McAdams knows about that piece of burning paper in 1:10 library.

- 16—Miss Mickelsen's sophomore homeroom wants to give her a dog for Christmas, but she already has a cat. She's having a hard time saying no, though.
- 17—The assembly program today presented Malcohn Rosholt, an interpreter of Asia. He showed how to speak and write the Chinese language.

18-Miss Grothman has separated some certain couples in the 2:50 library. My, how unusual to see a few couples separated!!

19—Last day of school for this year—1947 that is. Christmas program was presented to the students this afternoon, followed by the Christmas parties in the homerooms. The seniors had their party in the gym. Merry Christmas everyone—and Happy New Year!!

JANUARY

5—Miss Mickelsen started the year off right by threatening to inflict a "punishment" on the boys by placing a girl between each of them.

6—The truth is out!! At a scrimmage game with Lake Mills on Dec. 29, Ken Nehring piled up 42 points.

7—A broken jar, a pair of splintered glasses, and money scattered all around her locker—Did you have an accident Jackie?

8—The student council meeting had a little excitement today. Mr. Hinterberg accidentally (?) sprayed Jim Hoffman with a fire extinguisher. Jim's theme song now is, "Into Each Life Some Rain Must Fall".

12—loke of the day: —Honeymoon salad—lettuce alone....

13—Art Schmidt insists that the portrait drawn of him does not do him justice.

14—Mr. Fred Spooner gave an assembly program on "Training Dogs".

He explained how dogs were trained for war duty.

15—Rumor has it that Ralph Strahota was absent from school today due to a celebration of a coming birthday.

16—Hurry and get yourself a date girls. The Sadie Hawkins Dance is tonight.

19—Mary Goecke, how can you be so positive that Lady Macbeth fainted? You weren't there and anyway, what's one point more or less on a test!!!

20-Mr. Guyer complained today that his Senior Mixed Chorus always set their own time. Once they sing fast, they just keep singing fast. John Weaver attributed it to 'no brakes'.

22—Jean McAdams said she couldn't write her history test today because the facts were before her time!!

23—How deceiving athletic stars can be!!! Jim Craine told Cynthia Eisfeldt that he couldn't give her a kiss for her birthday because he was bashful.

26-Will someone verify the rumors that Louie Kuckkan and Don Burnett were quoting from the Bible in Math class today?

27—When asked what story the "Cavalcade of America" had dramatized last night, Bill Bongard replied "Mother Wore Tights". He just got "Lux Radio Theatre" a little confused with the historical "Cavalcade".

FEBRUARY

2—For the first time in Mr. Wills teaching career here, he was absent because of illness. A splendid record, Mr. Wills.

3-Ken Nehring is running up quite a bill for himself by continually dropping glass tubes, according to Mr. Herreid, his machine teacher.

4—Was that an apple Jean Chase and a few of her friends were eating during 2:50 library?

5—Ken Nehring won the Cooney basketball game last night—in a dream that is. Keep dreaming, Ken.

9—It isn't that anyone sleeps through 2:50 study hall, but just plain mischievousness that sets an alarm clock to go off in the middle of the period.

10—During the 1:10 gym period the junior and senior girls were playing basketball, when out of nowhere a whistle blew. Little Lois Archie walked to the side lines and handed the braces for her teeth to Jeanne Faber!!!

11—John Block was sitting quietly (?) in that dreaded detention room. There was a faint cry a few minutes later when John was dismissed. It seems that in his hurry to sit down, John had sat on a blueberry pie!! Too bad, John, that pie would have tasted good—.

13—You could have heard a pin drop in the 2:50 library today when, Bang! Crash! Boom! A stack of books fell. Very meekly Ted Snyder and Mar-lys Henning stooped to pick them up.

16—John Cuccia really stumped the Speech class with his charade. Everyone gave up. He was feeding the monkeys.

20—The subject under discussion today was: Resolved, whether the senior class shall present a pageant or a class play.

23—Jim Tester, Ken Nehring and Teddy Neverman learn a lot in their aeronautic class. Of course, that isn't saying what they learn!!!

24—Why does Jim Craine always ask permission to leave the library at 3:10? Could it be a rendezvous with Gloria?

25—Mary Goecke was in the process of telling one of her "jokes" in College English today when suddenly the desk broke and Mary landed on the floor. Even the desk resents your jokes, Mary.

26-Elmer Marshall presented an assembly program today.

27—Miss Gruner was inquiring about cemeteries being locked at night. Cyn Eisfeldt quickly said that they weren't. Do we see you blushing, Cynthia?

MARCH

1—Mr. Herreid has a new method for gum chewers now. Their names are put on the board and labelled "'privileged' people serving one detention!"

2—Winter had to give us one more big snowstorm. So this morning we all trudged to school in a very white world.

3—Had a fire drill today. Last night Don Fee was voted basketball captain.

5—"Roll up your shirt sleeves, boys, and girls, push up your sweater sleeves and we will begin our chemistry test." That was Mr. James talking.

8—Today we had another discussion on military training during 10:16 history class. Following these military debates the best friends usually don't speak for a week.

9—And so Don Busshardt has finally regained entrance to 2:50 library.

30—The Easter Bunny certainly was generous with corsages this year. 31—Joke of the day by Miss MacInnis. Did you hear about the little rabbit found resting in a refrigerator because he had heard it was a westing-house?

APRIL

1—Just how many of you can truthfully say you weren't fooled today? 2—Don Brink has transformed into a Don Juan because of the curler that Charlotte put in his hair last night.

5—Spring sports were met with real cooperation this year. Besides baseball, golf and tennis are being offered.

- 6—There have been tryouts for the Senior pageant this week. It's interesting to watch certain boys in those nice romantic roles. How about it Ken Nehring?
- 9—Tonight is the big night—the event of the year—the Prom. Have fun everyone.
- 12—Mr. Joseph informed his 11:03 aeronautic class that the five boys in the front row would have to discontinue their card club during class.
- 14—The Whitewater State Teachers College Chorus gave us a program this morning. There was quite a demand for their male quartette.
- 15—Once again Tom Chady got himself locked in Mr. James' room. How long were you banging on that window, Tom, until someone heard you?
- 16—The Girls Chorus, Senior Mixed Chorus, and the Octette presented their program to the school today. The "hit" song was "Dry Bones".
- 16—Bob Schauer proved he had muscles when he sat down in the auditorium this morning. Bob very gently (?) placed his arm down when his chair fell apart.
- 19—Ted Nevermann was crawling around on the floor at 2:50 looking for pennies. How many did you find, Teddy?
 - 20-Pageant practice with the orchestra tonight for the first time.
- 21—Keep on your toes everyone. There are several inspectors in school today.
- 22—Mr. Wills grew tired of having to dismiss students to get a drink during class so he informed them that it would have to stop. Now they bring pop to class. You have to be careful what you say to these people Mr. Wills.
 - 23—The baseball game against Hartford was cancelled because of rain.
- 26—Ticket sales for the pageant were counted today and it looks like there will be a sell-out.
- 27—An interesting asembly was given today by Mr. Glenn Morris on liquidified air.
 - 28-Report cards today. Well seniors, it won't be long now.
- 29—We hope you have enjoyed reading the calendar as much as we have enjoyed writing it. Good Luck and Clear Sailing.
- 30—Scott Bentzin proved his worth to members of the Orbit Staff by ably producing some of the pictures in this annual. Among those he took are the Spring Sports Program and the Class Day Picture. We appreciated it, Scott.
